The France Brodeur Young Artists Award (FBYAA) 2017

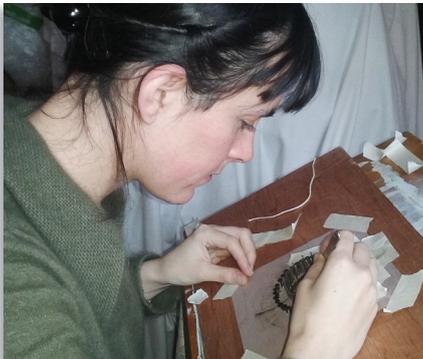

2016 FBYA Awards Evening + Call for 2017 Applications

Friday 3rd March 2017 6.30pm - 8.30pm at ArtistsWorkhouse, Studley, Warwickshire

Following a successful first year, The France Brodeur Young Artists Award (FBYAA) is very happy to announce both its Awards Evening for 2016 and the opening of the 2017 call for applications.

At the Awards evening, the 2016 award winners – Molly Lemon (top) and Pamela Schilderman (below) – will be exhibiting their work and talking about how FBYAA has helped them.

The FBYAA offers financial support to a young artist(s), aged between 18 and 35 years old, in relation to their art and artistic career. Ideally, grants awarded will be towards costs involved in a proposed project, which should include developing new work.

Practitioners who can demonstrate a commitment to their work, technical rigour, and development within their practice, would be ideal candidates.

Awards of between £500 and £2,500 are available.

The FBYAA 2017 call for applications opens on Friday 3rd March 2017 and closes at 12 noon on Thursday 31st August 2017. It is intended that award(s) will be announced in October 2017.

Please visit our website, www.francebrodeur.co.uk, for further details and to download an application pack.

The FBYAA was set up in memory of France Brodeur. France was a printmaker with international exhibitions to her name and a long-time member of the Oxford Printmakers Co-operative (OPC), Oxford, England. She had a wide range of interests in the arts, particularly the visual arts, theatre and dance. Originally from Quebec, Canada, France lived for nearly 20 years in Leamington Spa, Warwickshire, England, and died there in April 2014. The FBYAA seeks to honour both her art and her belief in life and its need to be lived and celebrated. France had a particular interest in the aspirations of those younger than her.
